

Miss Randolph, Author of "Rain," Wins Verdict Here

Ulster County Jury Finds Mrs. Helen H. Sheppard Had "No Cause of Action" for Damages Against Playwright Arising Out of Auto Accident at Woodstock.

A verdict of no cause of action was returned at the opening of the Supreme court this morning in the action brought by Helen H. Sheppard against Robert W. Chandler and Miss Clemence Randolph. The action was against Mr. Chandler and Miss Randolph. The jury was out but a few minutes Tuesday evening before reaching an agreement. Mrs. Sheppard claimed to have been injured in a motor accident at Woodstock while she was a guest of Miss Randolph. Frank W. Brooks appeared for the defendant and Lawrence A. Anderson for the plaintiff.

The question submitted to the jury was whether Clemence Randolph interfered with the driving of "Dietie" Chaplin on the early morning of August 23, 1924, by grabbing the wheel of the car which he was driving and therefore cause an accident in which Mrs. Sheppard was injured. Mrs. Sheppard claimed that Miss Randolph took hold of the wheel of the car and caused it to swerve from the roadway at Short's corner, near Woodstock, strike a bridge and run off into the creek, thereby injuring her knee to such an extent that she is permanently injured. The car which met with the accident was licensed in the name of Robert W. Chandler but Miss Randolph said the car had been a present to her from Mr. Chandler.

Mrs. Sheppard's Story. Mrs. Sheppard testified that she and her husband had been attending a party at the residence of a friend. There were some hundred guests present. About 1 o'clock there was a shower and while it was still raining she and her husband decided to go home. At that time Richard Chaplin of New York was about to depart in the Chandler car to take Miss Randolph home. In the car was a guest of Miss Randolph, who was seated in the rear seat. Mrs. Sheppard said she did not know Miss Randolph but that Richard Chaplin asked them to ride along and she sat in the rear seat while her husband was outside the car on the fender, to her left. The car started down the road and when a short distance from the starting point there was a steep hill and right hand turn. As the car approached this turn Mrs. Sheppard testified Miss Randolph took hold of the wheel and gave it a sharp turn, saying to the driver, "We turn here." The car left the road and Mrs. Sheppard says went into the creek. She was thrown forward against the front seat and received an injury to her knees.

Permanently Injured, Says Doctor. Dr. M. B. Downer testified that she had been brought to his office and he found ligaments which hold the knee cap torn and the joint injured. He made temporary dressings and had her taken to the Benedictine Hospital where X-ray pictures were taken to determine the extent of the injury. A plaster cast was put on and after it was removed five weeks later it was found that the ligament had not mended and the knee cap was not in place. He said she was permanently injured. However, a cross-examination of the doctor said there was evidence of a former knee injury. A record made at the hospital showed that Mrs. Sheppard in answer to questions asked said her knee had been injured on previous occasions.

Mrs. Sheppard said she was in the car on the night of the accident with the permission of the driver. She did not know who owned the car. She had been drinking beer but was not intoxicated. She said it was a dark night and she thought the car struck a tree after it ran off the bridge.

Minor Action Against Chandler. At the conclusion of plaintiff's case Frank W. Brooks, who appeared with Zachariah Sage, Gray & Todd for the defendant, moved that the action against the defendant Robert W. Chandler be dismissed as there had been no testimony to show that it had been taken by anyone with his permission. Judge Nichols granted the motion.

Verdict. Judge Nichols said that Mrs. Sheppard's case was a case of a woman who had been injured by a car which was driven by a man who was not the owner of the car. He said that the car was driven by a man who was not the owner of the car and that the car was driven by a man who was not the owner of the car.

Verdict. Judge Nichols said that Mrs. Sheppard's case was a case of a woman who had been injured by a car which was driven by a man who was not the owner of the car. He said that the car was driven by a man who was not the owner of the car and that the car was driven by a man who was not the owner of the car.

Verdict. Judge Nichols said that Mrs. Sheppard's case was a case of a woman who had been injured by a car which was driven by a man who was not the owner of the car. ## Human Chain Keeps Man Alive

Twenty-four Men Induce Artificial Respiration for Albert Frick, Who Has Been Stricken for Three Days With Paralysis of the Diaphragm.

Chicago, March 9 (AP).—An endless human chain held Albert Frick in the land of the living today while doctors hovered over the twenty-two year old youth who was still alive although he had not drawn a normal breath for three days, as a result of paralysis of the diaphragm.

Dropped up in bed at a 45 degree angle, Frick was able to converse briefly with those about him and physicians redoubled efforts to prevent a fatal instant's break in the rhythmic procession of men who have been inducing artificial respiration for the stricken young salesman since last Sunday morning.

Two by two they approach the bed, away back and forth for fifteen minutes, one on each side, working feverishly in exact rhythm, pressing their hands down on the victim's lower chest, then relaxing them, in an endless respiratory effort.

Twenty-four men have worked in an unbroken continuation of eight hour shifts, while others of Frick's friends stood ready to act as substitutes.

Without a break, the process has gone on since Sunday morning, when creeping paralysis took effect in nerves controlling the movements of the youth's diaphragm.

ATTORNEYS FOR MRS. RHINELANDER GET $1,500

White Plains, N. Y., March 9 (AP).—For presenting the case of Mrs. Alice Jones Rhinelander in the annulment action of her husband, Leonard Kip Rhinelander, in the court of appeals at Albany, Lee Parsons Davies and Samuel F. Swineburne, her attorneys, were granted an allowance of $1,500 by Supreme Court Justice Morchauer today. The attorneys sought $5,000.

Isaac N. Mills, counsel for Rhinelander, opposed the allowance, stating that the $18,500 they had received for their work during the trial and in the appellate division was sufficient. He said that this payment represented one-tenth of Rhinelander's personal fortune. This was denied by Mrs. Rhinelander's attorneys, stating that he had received $280,000 from the family estate in June, 1924.

PLEADED NOT GUILTY TO RECKLESS DRIVING CHARGE.

Frank Churchwell, who was arrested Tuesday by Sergeant Simpson on a warrant sworn out by Alfred Long of Lawrence street, charging Churchwell with reckless driving, had his hearing adjourned to March 20 when arraigned in police court today. Churchwell entered a plea of not guilty. His arrest followed a collision between his car and the Chevrolet car of Mr. Long and the Graham truck of the Studt Ice concern at the intersection of Delaware avenue and Livingston street on Tuesday.

very badly injured. She, too, went to the doctor's and to the hospital.

Chaplin Describes Accident. Chaplin, who hails from New York and has spent several seasons in Woodstock, was next called. Chaplin is the young man who caused somewhat of a sensation in this city several months ago when, dressed as a pirate, he speeded through town, much to the disgust of the police until he was finally apprehended.

Chaplin said he drove the car, Miss Randolph desired to go home and he was to bring back the car for the other guests later. Miss Randolph said she drove the car at times but on the night of the accident she did not drive as she was not familiar with the road and did not know which way to go home. Chaplin said he and Miss Randolph protested against the Sheppards getting in the car but Mrs. Sheppard was insistent and three herself in the car as the car went into motion. On the hill the car skidded and he turned the wheel to avoid the skid and gave additional power to pull the car out of the ditch. The car responded quicker than he anticipated and shot across the road and into the bridge rail. The car did not strike a tree. He denied that Mrs. Randolph touched the wheel or caused the accident.

What Doctor Told Mrs. Downer. Mrs. Downer, told in rebuttal, said that "Dietie" Chaplin, whom she knew, had told her at the home while the doctor was attending to the injured person, that Miss Randolph had grabbed hold of the wheel and caused the car to strike the object.

The case was resumed up and presented to the jury shortly before 3 o'clock and the court instructed the jury to bring in a verdict by this morning at the opening of court.

Seizure of Soviet Ship by Shantung May Cause Break

All Russian Prisoners Taken Aboard The Pamiat Lenina Have Been Ordered Executed—Mme. Borodin Among Those Arrested.

London, March 9 (AP).—Seizure of the Soviet ship Pamiat Lenina by Shantung troops on Saturday has been followed by a series of interesting developments. One report goes so far as to say that the incident is likely to lead to a rupture of relations between Soviet Russia and the Peking government.

Mme. Borodin, wife of Michael Borodin, Russian adviser to the Cantonese government, was among those placed under arrest when the vessel was taken. According to Shanghai advices she is charged with having in her possession plans of the military dispositions of General Chang Tsung-Chang, Shantungese defender of Shanghai, against the attacking Southern Nationalist Army. The Soviet consul at Shanghai is said to be on the way to Nanjing to try to secure the release of Mme. Borodin, who is reputed to have been born in Chicago, and the three Russian agents arrested by the Shantungese. It is understood they are prisoners at Tsinan.

Another report received from Peking by the Westminster Gazette is that all the Russian prisoners taken aboard the Pamiat Lenina, which was on the way to Hankow when seized, have been ordered executed, with the exception of Mme. Borodin. Marshal Chang Tso-Lin, the Manchurian war lord, is said to have taken this action on the ground that Chinese and Russian communists aboard the vessel were ready to help a mass of propaganda literature to help the cause of the Southern Nationalists, opposed by Marshal Chang.

The Russian Embassy at Peking, in a note to the foreign office protesting the seizure, demanded that the crew and passengers and the steamer itself be released immediately. It declared the Chinese government would be held responsible for their safety.

Cuvillier Comes To Front Again

With Another Bill Designed To Permit Sale of Light Wines and Beers—Would Establish State Dispensaries.

Albany, N. Y., March 9 (AP).—Assemblyman Louis A. Cuvillier, known as the "wet hope" of the New York legislature, came to the front today with another bill designed to permit the sale of light wines and beers. He introduced it today, the last day for initiation of legislation in the lower house.

The object of the latest Cuvillier liquor bill is the establishment of state dispensaries for the sale of wine and beer for medicinal purposes, on the ground that a public emergency exists in consequence of the federal government putting poison in alcoholic liquors. The bill asks an appropriation of $500,000 for beginning the new activity. The health department would be authorized to purchase wine and beer, fix its alcoholic content, guarantee its purity, and set the price at which it shall be sold to the consumer. The bill also contains a provision intended to provide for prosecution of any federal agent who conducts a raid upon a dispensary.

Miss Bacharach Reported Safe

Kingston Girl Is in Earthquake Zone in Japan as Member of Tourist Party on Steamship California.

Miss Bertha Bacharach of No. 19 Hope street is reported safe in the earthquake zone in Japan. She is a member of one of the Cook's Tours parties and a passenger aboard the steamship California. In the news dispatches of Tuesday it was stated that a gangplank collapsed while American tourists were boarding the ship during the tremors and that some were injured.

Her sister, Miss Lillian Bacharach, telephoned to the Cook Agency in New York city on Tuesday and was informed by the agency that her sister was safe and that none of the members of the party had been injured. The only fatality was that of Mr. Glen Schultz of Ventnor, N. J., who was drowned, as reported in the dispatches from Japan on Tuesday.

Committee Votes Not To Report Measure To Request Congress To Assemble Federal Constitutional Convention—Bills Rejected.

Albany, N. Y., March 9 (AP).—The judiciary committee of the Assembly sounded "Taps" over a large collection of bills last night. In addition to voting not to report Assemblyman Cuvillier's measure to request congress to assemble a federal constitutional convention to repeal the 18th amendment, the committee rejected the following:

Baumes-Edmond Bill, recommending the Baumes Crime Commission and designed to permit a defendant in a criminal case to waive trial by jury except where the penalty is death.

Gavagan Bill to prohibit ticket speculators from charging more than 50 cents above the box office price for tickets to places of amusement.

Fisher Bill to compel proprietors of hotels and lodging houses to keep a register showing the registration number of the guests travelling in automobiles.

The Hogstadter Bill to provide for women serving on juries.

The Hackenback Bill to prevent issuance of court injunctions in industrial disputes without a hearing.

The Cuvillier resolution to amend the state constitution so as to permit the use of the state's credit to relieve housing congestion and provide homes for its citizens.

ASKS AMERICAN RED CROSS TO AID JAPAN

Washington, March 9 (AP).—President Coolidge asked the American Red Cross today to offer aid to Japan in its latest earthquake disaster.

Red Cross officials said their assistance would be at Japan's disposal, but that it was not yet certain that outside help was required.

Reports from the stricken area are being studied at Red Cross headquarters. A state department dispatch today from Kobe said the only American known to have been killed in the earthquake was Mrs. Jessie Glen Schultz, of Ventnor, N. J.

Damage to American property in the Kobe area apparently was confined to destruction of several Standard Oil Company warehouses.

SUES FOR DAMAGES TO BRICK SCOW.

An action to recover damages to a brick scow owned by James Noble which plaintiff claims was damaged by reason of the negligence of the Hudson River Day Line in operating the steamer Alexander Hamilton was taken up for trial before Judge Nichols and a jury in the Supreme court this morning. Mr. Noble claims that while he was tied up at Ulster Landing taking on a load of brick, the steamer, south bound, was operated so as to raise unusual swells and cause his boat to list so severely that it was damaged to the extent of some $12,000. He seeks to recover damages from the Day Line. Richard Lenahan of Mackinac, Brown & Van Wijk appears for plaintiff and Van Eiten & Cook appear for the Day Line. The case was continued this afternoon.

ARREST TWO IN MILLION DOLLAR MAIL FRAUD.

Chicago, March 9 (AP).—A mail fraud which postal inspectors said had been the means of taking from nearly a thousand victims approximately $1,000,000 in investments for supposed oil lands, was disclosed today with the arrest of Henry J. Froelich, 63, and Joseph Devore, 60. Most of those defrauded are residents of Illinois and Ohio, postal office inspectors said.

Disaster One of The Gravest in Japan's History

Earthquake Brought Death to More Than 2,000, Injuries To Thousands and Untold Misery To 50,000—Cold Snowy Weather Adds To Discomfort of Homeless.

Tokyo, March 9 (AP).—Japan was organizing today to succor the central part of the island, where Monday's calamitous earthquake brought death to more than 2,000 persons, injuries to thousands of others and untold misery to about fifty thousand persons whose homes collapsed or were burned. The condition of the homeless is pitiable owing to the cold snowy weather which followed the quake and last night's rain.

Army and navy expeditions are on the way with food, clothing and medicines. Other relief parties are being pushed from Tokyo, Yokohama, Kobe, Osaka and Kyoto.

The exact number of the casualties was still unknown today but it is clear that the disaster was one of the gravest in Japan's history. Each succeeding report brings a fresh story of death and suffering.

Fifty thousand men, women and children scattered throughout the quake area are homeless and in most cases without even temporary shelter. Reports to the home office, still incomplete because of interrupted communications, indicated that in the town of Minayama alone 1,000 persons were killed and 1,000 houses destroyed.

From all parts of the stricken area reports have come in of towns laid waste, partly through the quake and partly through fires which broke out soon after the disturbance. One devastated region brought in an account of between twenty to thirty villages destroyed.

Although the larger cities of the district, Kobe and Osaka, felt the quake, they escaped with comparatively little damage. There were not many deaths there, and most of them were due to falling tiles and stampedes by crowds.

See Success of Three-Power Pact

Advices Indicate Great Britain and Japan Will Accept American Proposal for a Conference on Limitation.

Washington, March 9 (AP).—London and Tokyo news advices clearly indicating that Great Britain and Japan will accept the American proposal for a conference with the United States at Geneva this summer on auxiliary warcraft limitation are taken by officials here to mean that such a project ultimately will be brought about.

While there has not been much doubt as to the Japanese attitude toward such an arrangement, British sentiment in the past generally has been against any limitation of anti-submarine craft as long as her continental neighbors refused to limit submarine construction, and officials have looked to Great Britain to remove the greatest obstacle in the way of a three-power parity.

France and Italy, who turned down the American proposal for a five-power naval limitation conference, which Great Britain and Japan favored, probably will be asked to send observers to the three-power meeting, formal invitations to which will be held up pending replies from the latter two countries.

Senate House Bill On Final Passage

Albany, N. Y., March 9 (AP).—Appropriation bills carrying a total of more than $500,000 were advanced to the order of final passage in the Assembly today. ## McGinnis Chief Train Dispatcher

James T. McGinnis Appointed Chief Train Dispatcher of U. & D. Railroad—Succeeds H. P. Stickles, Who Resigned Due to Failing Health.

Superintendent Phelps of the Ulster & Delaware Railroad Company today made known the appointment of James T. McGinnis to the post of chief train dispatcher. Mr. McGinnis has dispatched trains over the Catskill mountains since 1903 and was in line for the promotion by virtue of seniority.

"Jim," as he is known by his associates, began his career as messenger boy for the Western Union Telegraph Company in 1891, where he learned to master the dots and dashes. In 1893 he was employed by the Ulster & Delaware as relief operator. In that capacity Mr. McGinnis worked in nearly every station of the railroad. He gained extensive experience with this work, which in later years was of immense value to him as dispatcher.

In 1903 "Jim" was promoted to the dispatcher's office as train dispatcher. There he rapidly became an efficient controller of trains. Noblemish marks his long record of 24 years of issuing train orders. Accuracy and clear judgment have been one of his sterling qualities that helped push him into the chief's chair.

Mr. McGinnis succeeds Herbert P. Stickles, who for 30 years successfully coped with problems confronting him as head of the dispatcher's office. Failing health caused Mr. Stickles to relinquish his position and accept a pension on the retirement list.

Mr. Stickles had served the railroad faithfully for forty-two years. His integrity, executive ability and correct decisions have characterized his long career and have been of immeasurable value to the railroad. "Should Mr. Stickles recover his health," said Superintendent Phelps, "a position will always be waiting for him."

FEATURES OF TORONTO'S NEW CONTROL BILL.

Toronto, March 9 (AP).—Provision for unlimited purchase of liquor on government permits was seen as one of the salient features of the new government control bill on the program of the Ontario legislature today.

Permits would be bought from the government and it is understood would be good for one year in the case of residents and one month for transients and tourists.

Establishment of separate stores for the sale of beer and wines and for the sale of liquors is also reported part of the government plan. In view of this arrangement, the government is said to believe, localities objecting to the sale of liquors would not oppose sale of beer and wines under government supervision.

JURY HEARS SINCLAIR'S SIDE OF CONTROVERSY.

Washington, March 9 (AP).—The jury which will determine whether Harry F. Sinclair should be punished for contempt of the Senate today heard the oil operator's side of the controversy which grew out of his refusal to answer questions before the committee which investigated the leasing of the Teapot Dome naval oil reserve.

After having occupied only one day in presenting its testimony, the government rested its case soon after the opening of court today, and George P. Hoover, chief of Sinclair's counsel, opened for the defense with a recital of the points to be raised on behalf of his client.

The defense attorney asked the jury to remember that Sinclair had testified before the Senate committee five times before his refusal on March 22, 1924, to answer a series of questions propounded by Senator Walsh of Montana, prosecutor of the Senate inquiry, and Senator Adams of Colorado.

Cal Coolidge and Al Smith Figure In Early Booms

President Coolidge is Hailed as Un-disputed Leader of His Party in the Nation—Democratic Leaders Announce They Are Already at Work in Behalf of Governor Smith.

New York, March 9 (AP).—"Cal" and "Al" figured today in some of the first discussions of presidential prospects to develop since Congress adjourned.

While Calvin Coolidge was hailed at a Republican meeting as "the undisputed leader of his party in the nation," Democratic leaders announced they were already at work in behalf of Alfred E. Smith and "proposed to nominate him."

The boom for the New York state governor was sponsored by George W. Olvany, Tammany leader, and John P. Carow, chairman of the New York state Democratic delegation in the House of Representatives. They announced their optimism after a conference at Tammany Hall.

Coolidge enthusiasm was manifested at a gathering of Kings county Republicans at which the keynote of confidence in the present occupant of the White House for another term was sounded by Albert Ottlinger, New York state attorney general.

Coolidge and Smith Silent. Despite the buzz of conjecture the two men most concerned made no statement as to their availability.

"I am staying here in Albany and attending to my own business and that of the people of the state," was Governor Smith's only comment. President Coolidge maintained his silence on the subject.

From Chairman Oldfield of the Democratic Congressional campaign committee in Washington came a remark as to President Coolidge's plan to spend the summer somewhere in the west. In the region where the boom of Frank O. Lowden has been prominent especially since Coolidge's veto of the farm relief bill. Oldfield said the President's plan "would naturally suggest that it was prompted by an intention to angle for votes instead of fish."

At the Tammany Hall discussion Judge Olvany said that while Governor Smith has in no way indicated whether he will be a candidate, reports received from all sections of the country show that the governor is the favorite for the nomination.

Moody for Running Mate. Representative Carow predicted Smith "will get some delegates from Texas," while other party leaders said they had received reports that Governor Dan Moody of that state had been mentioned as a running mate for the New York governor and would confer with him soon at Albany.

"Thanks for the compliment," said Governor Moody when the report reached him in San Antonio, "but who is going to pay the railroad fare?"

TROLLEY CAR SNAPPED OFF BROADWAY CROSSING GATE

Last Friday evening a trolley car crashed into the West Shore railroad gates at the Broadway crossing, snapping off an end of one of the gates. The gates had been lowered to allow a freight to pass over the crossing and after the freight had passed switch engine came down on the crossing. Both trolley and engine stopped in time to avoid a collision.

The railroad authorities took the matter up with the trolley road at a conference held Monday afternoon at the car barn, claiming that if the conductor on the trolley car had gone ahead as required to flag his trolley car over the crossing the gate would not have been broken.

ARRIVAL OF MORE U. S. MARINES CAUSE EXCITEMENT

The total number of marines that have come from the Henderson since it reached Corinto several days ago, now stands at 1,265. The arrival of the marines caused much excitement.

Matanzas Electioneering. At the New Falls village, Matanzas, held in the New Falls village Monday night, Benjamin H. Mattonson was nominated for president in 1928 for two years. David F. Bennett and Judson H. Schoonmaker were nominated for trustees to serve for two years.

Traffic Police in Manila Are Polite

Manila, March 9 (A).—Traffic policemen here do not razz offending motorists. They are instructed by Chief of Police John Green, an American, that it is their duty to keep traffic moving but that berating offending motorists is not one of their functions. Consequently minor offenders are halted and given a "short, kindly talk". More serious offenders say "Good morning" to a judge. Traffic moves more by precedent than by regulation, but it is only the new arrival, usually an American, who becomes impatient. Precedent is based on custom and, in turn, custom is largely based on the laws of nature. First comes the carabao, sort of a cross between a bull and a buffalo. The animal has been in the islands as long as the inhabitants themselves. Newly arrived Americans consider the carabao the slowest known form of visible locomotion. He draws his cart at the rate of about a mile an hour but the creature is too large to be dislodged from his position in the traffic line. Next come the carabao and carabao, the former a two-wheeled horse drawn carriage going back to the old Spanish days. The latter is a pony drawn conveyance. There are hundreds of both types of vehicles. Next to them, trucks have the right of way, a right based upon sheer might. But the natives are not impatient and the patently dressed traffic officers keep things moving with seldom a traffic jam.

MISS BALAN POPULAR DESPITE ANNULMENT

Nice, March 9.—Madame Jacques Balan's popularity with her English friends apparently has not been affected by the furor which was created by the announcement of the annulment of her marriage to the Duke of Marlborough by the Vatican. Mrs. Winston Churchill, wife of the British Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Lord and Lady Oxford and Asquith, among other important English people, have visited at her home on the Riviera since the announcement of the annulment and the admission of the Duke of Marlborough into the Roman Catholic Church. Winston Churchill is a relative of the Duke of Marlborough, being a member of the Spencer family. However, the British friends of the Duchess of Marlborough apparently have not been shaken in their loyalty by her divorce following her long estrangement from the duke, her subsequent marriage to Colonel Balan and the revival of discussion of the divorce brought about by the annulment of the marriage of Madame Balan to the Duke of Marlborough.

WOMAN FAVORS DEATH FOR WORST CRIMINALS

Frankfort, Ky., March 9.—Kentucky's bob-haired commissioner of pardons, Miss Cora Morehead, believes in capital punishment. "If life-term prisoners were compelled to serve their terms, we could afford to do away with capital punishment," she says. "But until this is true I am in favor of the extreme penalty." After handling thousands of clemency applications her observation is that in sections where swift and severe punishment is administered, crime waves are virtually unknown. Miss Morehead likes the English system of dealing with criminals.

STONE RIDGE.

Stone Ridge, March 9.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis entertained a number of friends at cards last Thursday evening. Prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. William Webber, Mrs. L. D. Sahler and Ervin Schoonmaker. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davis entertained Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hornbeck at supper Sunday evening. Fred Davis and Frank Davis attended the testimonial dinner given in honor of the Hon. Philip Elting. Miss Alberta Davis, who is attending Syracuse University, spent the week end at home. The regular annual meeting of the plot holders of the Stone Ridge Fairview Cemetery Association will be held in the basement of the Stone Ridge Reformed Church Tuesday, March 15, at 2 p. m. The purpose of the meeting is for election of officers and to transact important business.

The regular business meeting of Stone Ridge Grange was held Monday evening, March 7. A very interesting program consisting of singing by Mrs. L. D. Sahler, recitations by Ross Osterhout, reports from Pomona Grange, singing by the Grange and the playing of games was put on by the lecturer assisted by the chairman of the home economic committee, Miss Frances Muller. At the next meeting, March 21, a large class will be initiated in the first and second degrees.

Oscar Hornbeck has 2,000 baby chicks. Mrs. Keator of Tillson is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Charles Sherman. At the diphtheria clinic held at the school house on Friday afternoon, March 4, there were 104 children given the treatment for the prevention of diphtheria. A number from Stone Ridge Grange attended the Pomona Grange at Plattekill Friday, March 4. Mrs. Laura Onslow spent the week end with her niece, Miss Elizabeth Elmendorf.

Keeping Switches Clear

Many a train delay in winter weather used to be due to snow and ice choking rail switches. Oil fires once were burned on the ground around important switches to keep ice melted out. Nowadays it is done by laying lengths of electric heaters between the ties so that switches can work in winter with as little interference as in summer.

Legion Swim On Lake George

Lake George, N. Y., March 9 (P).—Plans for a 32-mile swimming race on Lake George for a prize of $3,000 were announced today by Earl Crandall, commander of local American Legion post, which is sponsoring the contest, tentatively for the third week in July. Invitations are being sent to noted swimmers, including George Young, Canadian conqueror of Catalina Channel, and Gertrude Ederle. Mr. Crandall said there was to be no limit on the number of entries and that it was hoped fifty or more swimmers for the prize might be secured. The prize money is being subscribed locally.

The start will be made at Baldwin, at the northern end of the lake, with the finish at this village. Lake George, winding between high mountains, is notoriously cold and is dotted with many islands.

2 Armour Grain Officials Resign

Chicago, March 9 (P).—Published reports of the resignation of two high officials of the Armour Grain Company, and appointment by the Chicago Board of Trade of a committee to investigate alleged irregularities of the concern in connection with the Grain Marketing Company failure, held attention of the grain trade today.

George E. Marcy, chairman of the board of directors of the Armour concern, and George Thompson, superintendent in charge of elevators, were the two officials, the Tribune said, whose resignations became known after a special meeting of the company's directors. Mr. Marcy is one of the oldest chiefs in the Armour organization in point of service and one of the most widely known grain men in America.

The Armour Grain Company recently was directed to pay approximately $3,000,000 to the defunct Grain Marketing Company by an arbitrator who heard charges that records had been falsified and grain samples changed at the time of the formation of the $20,000,000 cooperative project, in which the Armour concern held 48 per cent of the stock.

Flattering Styling in the New Tubable Frocks

It is characteristic of the new wash-goods modes for spring that they be endowed with the airs and graces which usually feature the more pretentious silks and woolsens. This season's tubable frocks for morning and porch wear express outstanding modernity. It is the cunning pepium made of a wide bias fold of the material which imparts "style" to this dainty frock in the picture. The new rayon and cotton mixtures are lovely in coloring and design. They launder exquisitely. The silken sheen of the rayon seems to grow more lustrous with each tubbing.

Paris Fashion Notes of Interest to Women

Fashion notes from Paris as reported in the Fashionable Dress Magazine read:

One might say of the color scheme black and reds lead, with black and white showing a keen disposition to overtake them.

The double waistline, especially as Jenny defines it, is much seen. This is oftenest just two belts a few inches apart.

There is a new fashion of running a little tie, not more than a shoe-string, across an open neck at the base of the throat.

Yokes are really tremendously important. From simple sports dress to elaborate evening gown, the yoke runs the gamut in its individual way.

Skirts do not become fuller around the hip, only at the hem and they do not lengthen perceptibly.

Perhaps the fun playing is to succeed the kick plain.

How Skins Are Used in Coats for Sports Wear

It is not alone the fact that fur coats are much more luxurious and infinitely smarter than they have ever been or that skins never before used for feminine attire are employed in the fashioning of their wraps, that attracts the attention. More than a little interest is attached to the clever and ingenious way in which the skins are put together.

One sees this even in the less expensive coats made of fur suitable for sports wear, and it is more pronounced in wraps which are in the luxury class.

Belts and Necklines Coming to the Front

Belts and necklines are again coming to the front. For a time dresses seemed to be one straight piece, but now the narrow belt is the thing. It is worn rather snug at the hip and gives a slight blouse effect to what Paris terms a "beat" frock.

A square neck in front and a tab yoke in back is the newest of the new concerning the neckline.

The jacket blouse with a narrow belt is the latest thing for sports wear.

Tailored Suit Always Included in Wardrobe

In a season when the far-trimmed coat or suit is universally worn, a model which depends entirely upon its material and line for chic is of more than passing interest. Every woman who makes any pretense to keeping up with the mode always includes in her wardrobe the suit of tailored aspect. In some cases it is so cleverly cut and so unobtrusive in its details that even in the second year it does not seem out of style.

Elbows Fashionable

Elbows are again fashionable. A considerable number of new coats have buttoned elbows and the attention given the elbow trimmings by dress designers, in all sorts of garments, is a leading point of the latest fashions.

KINGSTON, N. Y., MARCH 9, 1927.

Perhaps neither dyes nor wets
 will greatly regret to hear that General Smedley D. Butler has been ordered as far away as China, for neither is quite sure which side can claim his devotion.

Recruiting officers in several sections of the country have reported increased army enlistments during February, all of them attributing it to the order increasing the army ration from 35 cents to 50 cents a day. There may be other explanations, but no doubt the assurance of plenty to eat has its attractions.

The mishaps that have befallen
 our "good will" aviators in Latin America, culminating in the tragic fate of Captain Woolsey and Lieutenant Benton, while deeply to be regretted, may serve as a reminder that just dealings in international relations is a better way to prove and inspire good will than through a
 "gesture" of this sort.

Lord, Roseberry charges that Lloyd-George sold 90 peerages when in power and suggests that an investigating committee ought to inquire of the 90 purchasers as to "the origin of their nobility". A London Labor organ adds that the inquiry should include "the whole nobility" of about 700 peers. But it might be awkward if too many of them had to confess riches from beer brewing and such like.

Ernest Boyd, a New York literary critic of Irish upbringing, praises Eugene O'Neill, the cryptic playwright, Theodore Dreiser, the sex-novelist, and H. Mencken, the savage critic, but sees little else to admire
 in American letters and condemns American newspapers without reservation. Perhaps he does not know that all three of the men he regards
 as our chief literary lights began their writing careers as reporters for American newspapers.

AN ENCOURAGING DECISION.

Those who had begun to fear that justice has little chance when opposed by the power of money will be encouraged by the Supreme Court's decision declaring that the naval-oil leases and contracts awarded Edward L. Doheny while Albert H.
 Fall was Secretary of the Interior
 were tainted with fraud and therefore illegal. The great Court declared that "it was the purpose of those making the contracts and leases to circumvent the laws and defeat the policy of the United States established for the conservation of the naval petroleum reserves." That "the whole transaction was tainted with corruption," and that whether the $100,000 was a bribe or not,
 "these companies sought and corruptly obtained Fall's dominating influence in furtherance of the venture."

The recovery by the Government of its property at Elk Hills is not the only important result of this sweeping decision. It proves beyond question the value and righteousness of the Senate investigation and of the public agitation that followed. It also adds evidence from the highest source that the novel, "Revelry," depicting graft and corruption at Washington, was based on fact, not the action of scandal-mongers, and has served, and may still serve, a useful purpose, even though it may be open to criticism in matters of taste.

LOBBY LEGISLATION.

Many a sincere well-wisher of his country has been alarmed by the reports of the activities, the power and the corrupting influence of the lobbies at Washington, regarding them and their work as interfering,
 even threatening with corruption,
 old-time, truly representative government, and wondering, as their numbers increase and their determination strengthens, why nothing is done, as the man in the street would say, to tell them "where they get off". Such anxious patients will be encouraged to hear that Congress proposes to investigate the Federal Council of Commerce, which is said to spend a million dollars a year in its lobbying activities. Admiring the power of Congress to do this,
 the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin

says, the inquiry should not be restricted to a single lobby—and further:

If Congress really wants to investigate the influence at work on its members, it should take the whole list of the Invisible Government Club as a field. Washington is crowded to overflowing with enterprises directed toward influencing legislation and public opinion. There are boards of morals, associations representing almost every imaginary industry and trade and agricultural undertaking.
 From milkmen to manufacturers,
 from mothers to marketers, from cheese to coal, from high tariff to highways, and from waterways to oyster farming, nothing lacks its special bureau at Washington.

No doubt they are legion—more or less. But they can not all be investigated at once. A beginning must be made somewhere. And it is obvious that some have more money and are doing more harm than others.

FOLLOWING YOUR OWN ADVICE.

The story is told that the Society of Hygiene of Paris met for a number of years in a certain room.
 They decided to meet in another room, and when their previous meeting place was examined, it was found that four layers of carpet were on the floor. As a carpet got old and soiled, a new one was placed over it, with no pretence of removing the old one and cleaning up the floor before the new carpet was put down.

And at a state medical group meeting, there was a discussion on Periodic Physical Examination of apparently healthy persons. It was asked how many physicians present had been examined within the past year. Three in seventy raised their hands. And these gentlemen were at this meeting with the idea of furthering the suggestion of periodic physical examinations with the public generally.

It is the old story of course. A physician working hard all the time, encountering sudden illnesses and sudden deaths amongst apparently healthy people, forgets all about himself and his needs.

Someone has pointed out "that hardly a month passes but what some physician, dear to his friends, and apparently in the prime of his life, suddenly drops from the ranks."
 It is this expression "apparently healthy" that lulls us all into a state of false security. A little infection may pass over in a few days or weeks, leave you tired for a while, but you forget about it with the stress of work. Perhaps that little infection has done some damage to the heart, to the kidneys, to the bloodvessels, that can only be detected by a careful physical examination.
 The knowledge of this defect need not frighten you, but really enables you to learn how to live in security.
 It is really the most valuable knowledge you can possess.

As the Wisconsin Medical Journal
 aptly put it "An hour a year for a physical examination may add life
 to your years and years to your life."
 Make it a point to get this hour's overhauling from your family doctor
 once a year.

QUEER QUIRKS in HUMAN DESTINY

By HARRY B. CALENS

WIKI SERVICE

Cackling of Geese Saved Rome FEW events of history have hung upon a stranger twist of fate than the recovery of Rome by the arms of Marcus Camillus in the early days of the city's glory. The cackling of geese saved Rome.

Plutarch relates that Camillus was a wise and valorous leader, who lost his popularity with the people of Rome
 because of his stern sense of justice.
 Facing conviction on a trumped-up charge, Camillus went into voluntary banishment. On leaving Rome, he called upon the gods to avenge the injustice done him.

Soon thereafter the Romans were defeated in the battle of Alliensis by the Gauls of Brennus. The wayward Romans would not yield obedience to leaders, preferring to fight in straggling disorder. Survivors fled ten miles to Rome and prepared to stand siege in the capitol, leaving the city in the mercy of the conquerors, who burned it, slaying all those who had not found sanctuary within the capitol situated upon a high hill. One night a messenger from Roman refugees in Ardea slipped into the city and scaled the steep hill to the capitol.
 Next day the Gauls found traces of his visit and determined to follow the same path in a surprise attack upon the beleaguered Romans.

Nimble mountaineers escalated the steep cliff and were about to fall upon the sleeping garrison when the sacred geese in the capitol rendered more than usually watchful by hunger, set up a cackling which roused the Romans. The Gauls were repulsed and the capitol held.

In the meantime, Camillus, greatest of living military leaders, had volunteered to lead the Ardeatians against marauding Gauls and had scored a great victory. Fugitive Romans gathered about his standard and persuaded him to march against the victorious Gauls in Rome. He defeated Brennus and relieved the capitol about the Ides of February, seven months after the barbarians had entered the city.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

(By The Associated Press.)

Philadelphia.—In the opinion of the Philadelphia Law Association, to which most of the city's lawyers belong, prohibition and extreme enforcement have produced disregard of law generally. The resolution expressing the opinion and urging a more reasonable system productive of temperance was adopted 69 to 32.

Berlin.—Any hungry and thirsty person who is as meticulous about food and drink may go to a sumptuous new restaurant and look into a glass-enclosed kitchen.

Monte Carlo.—There have been three suicides in five days at the casino. The latest was at one of the gaming tables. Play kept right on while ambulance attendants were at work.

Wellesley, Mass.—Wellesley College girls must be more careful in having a puff. Official conclusions are that a recent dormitory fire was due to careless use of smokers' articles.

Berlin.—The jazz age is responsible for some ailments unknown to the old Egyptians, in the opinion of Dr. Arnold Sachs of the University of Heidelberg, who has performed autopsies on 30,000 mummies. Most old Egyptians died with perfect teeth.
 Cancer and tuberculosis were virtually unknown.

New York.—Cornelius Vanderbilt
 has got himself a new lawyer, firing Dudley Field Malone. He says Malone approved a settlement of his $3,000,- 000 differences with his family for $150,000 of which $60,000 was to be counsel fees.

COXSACKIE WOMAN REFUSES FOOD IN JAIL.

Sadie Teabout, a young colored woman, twenty-eight years of age, a resident of Cossackie, was brought to the Catskill jail several days ago
 and confined in the women's quarters, due to an unbalanced mind.
 The woman refuses to take any food because she claims everybody is trying to "dope" her. The last she ate was Friday night when she partook of a roll and some coffee
 after strenuous efforts on the part of attendants were exerted.

Mrs. Van Hoesen and Cooper examined the woman and submitted a report to County Judge William E.
 Thorpe who committed her to the State Hospital at Poughkeepsie.

The husband of Mrs. Teabout recently left her, which is thought to have made her condition much worse.
 Some of her neighbors tried to care for her but her condition became that the authorities had to be called upon.

Cast Arrested

Jackson, Miss., March 9 (AP).—Officials here today waited the next move on the part of George E. Wintz, manager of the Music Box Revue, who was arrested yesterday on charges that he had allowed and caused girl members of his company to appear on the stage improperly clad. Wintz and 17 members of his company were released on bond last night. A hearing will be held here next Monday.

Affidavits against 57 members of the company were filed yesterday.
Only Wintz, 15 girls and two men who took part in the "Black Bottom" act of the show, were arrested, however. Wintz's bond was fixed at $2,000 while the others were released on $500 bond each.

Patrons who had purchased tickets for the performance last night got their money back when the district attorney announced that he had an injunction ready to close the show if it attempted to open. The action was started by R. E. Kennington, one of the owners of the theatre where the revue played. Kennington said he found the girls too scantily clad, the dance vulgar and the jokes suggestive.

Cold Spring Harbor, Long Island—
"General Rosalie" of the suffragette hikers.

Engagement of the couple was announced in Washington yesterday by Senator Dill and confirmed from her Long Island home by Miss Jones. The ceremony, it was said, probably would take place within ten days.

Senator Dill, who is 42, and one of two brothers to an estate valued at $5,000,000 left by her father, Dr.

Oliver Livingston Jones.

She became known as "General Rosalie" in 1912 when she led the party of suffragettes on a hike
through the snow to Albany to present a petition for women's suffrage to Governor Glynn and later led a hike through the mud to Washington

inauguration.

FIREFLIES

Nick and Nancy very rarely played all the games they wanted to, but it had poured all day, and a whole rainy day indoors had proved too much for them.

When they heard the sound of a key being turned in the front door they bounded down the stairs.

"We thought you would never come," cried Nick.

"Aren't you late?"

"No," said Daddy, looking at his watch. "I'm just five minutes ahead of time."

"Why, what's the matter? Haven't you had a good day?"

"No," said Nick. "It has been simply awful. It has rained and rained, and we couldn't go out."

"Do hurry and tell us your story,"

"Dear me," said Daddy, "to think that you and Nancy really were tired of playing!"

"I thought that never happened."

"Well, only on a rainy day," said Nancy. "and even then it doesn't happen very often."

"A rainy day is sometimes tiresome," said Daddy, "so I'll tell you a very cheerful little story this evening."

"I think I will tell you about the fireflies."

"Way off in Japan," began Daddy, "the fireflies are regarded as very valuable and very wonderful, and so they often really supply lights for entertainments."

"They are collected in masses from all the swamps where they live, and then when the people give garden parties they let the fireflies fly around to give them fairylike light."

"One evening at one of these parties were two little American girls."

"The fireflies heard them talking about America."

"They said they loved America but that they loved the fireflies they had seen here so much."

"Of course you can imagine how proud and pleased the fireflies were."

"They listened to still more of the conversation of the two little girls, and found out they were sailing with their mother on a big steamer for America."

"The fireflies decided to go along, too."

"They stayed in their swamp until the sailing day came, and then they hid themselves back of a lot of unused campstools on the ship."

"Of course the trip was very uncomfortable for them, but they made the best of it."

"At last it was over, and the fireflies, unseen, followed the little girls to their home."

"Of course the little girls gave a party soon after they got home for all their small friends."

"They told them about the lovely fireflies of Japan, when, all of a sudden, the fireflies came forth and sparkled their little lights as they flew around."

"Oh, how the children clapped their hands, and the little girls cried:

"Now we are home in America, and we have the fireflies from Japan."

"And you may be sure the fireflies were happy, too, with the success of their surprise."

"And that is one of the descriptions of how the fireflies first came to America."

"There are other accounts but that is the one the Fairy Queen tells and I like it, so I am telling it to you."

Ancient Rites of Indians Recalled

Colorful Ceremonies Occurred About This Time of the Year Among Tribes of New York State—Significance of Some Ceremonies.

Naples, N. Y., March 9 (AP)—The passing of the winter months in this section recalls the passing also of the Indian tribes and their colorful ceremonies which always took place about this time of year.

Bare Hill, overlooking Canandaigua Lake, near here, is believed to have been the scene of many a Seneca council and festival. Indeed, it was from this hill that the Senecas traced the origin of their tribe through the escape of a small band from an enormous serpent which coiled itself about the hill and in its death struggles from wounds inflicted by an Indian warrior denuded the hill of vegetation.

Probably the most impressive of the Indian ceremonies was the "Feast of the Old Moon," or New Year's jubilee, held in January or February, according to the position of the moon. The seven-day feast still is observed on some Indian reservations in Western New York.

The ceremonies were preceded by a three-day council for the confession of sins, that the people might begin the New Year properly. On the day appointed for the opening of the festival, two members of the tribe known as "Keepers of the Faith" visited each hut morning and evening. They wore disguises of bearskin or buffalo robes, secured about their heads with wreaths of corn husks and gathered around the body loosely. Corn husks also adorned their arms and ankles, and their faces were painted hideously. They carried dried shells of tortoise or turtle containing a few beans. Driving Out Evil Spirits.

The messengers rubbed the shells on the walls of the huts, inside and out. They warned the people to drive out all evil spirits to prepare for the coming ceremonies. Fires were extinguished, the ashes scattered to the four winds and new fires were lighted on every hearth. If any one died during the period of festival, the body was put aside and the families continued with the ceremonies as if nothing had occurred. At the conclusion of the feast the whole tribe joined in mourning with the bereaved family and the funeral rites were held.

On the first day of the ceremonies, white dogs were strangled at the door of the council house. White was the Indian symbol of purity and faith and care was taken to sacrifice only dogs of spotless white. The second day was given over to visiting. All the people, dressed in their best, called in turn at the homes of other members of the tribe. Two keepers of the faith, painted and dressed like warriors, preceded them, stirring the ashes of the various hearths and chanting a song of thanksgiving.

Sacrifice of the White Dog.

The third and fourth days were given over largely to dancing parties in the homes. The fifth day, with its impressive "Sacrifice of the White Dog," was the most important of the seven. Soon after dawn the strangled dogs were taken from the poles on which they had been hung and were placed in the council house. The keeper of the faith made a speech, referring to the antiquity of the ceremony, its importance and solemnity and enjoining all the people to direct their thoughts to the Great Spirit. He concluded by thanking the Great Spirit that the lives of the people had been spared for another year.

A chant was begun, four keepers of the faith placed the dogs on bark litters and carried them to an altar, the people following, single file, in solemn procession. The dogs were placed on the altar fire with much ceremony, their heads to the rising sun, and were burned. During the burning, the Great Spirit's attention was called to the fact that the Indian had sent his faithful hunting companion, the dog, to convey the thanks of the tribe for the blessings of the year. Thanksgiving songs and chants were sung in measured verse, and then a leader of the tribe delivered the "thanksgiving address" to the Great Spirit.

After the speech, the people returned to the council house for the feather dance. It was followed by entertainment for the people during the afternoon and evening.

The Thanksgiving Dance.

The morning of the sixth day found the people again assembled in the council house, this time for the "thanksgiving dance," and ceremonies and entertainment not unlike those of other days.

The feature of the seventh day was the thanksgiving feast, at the conclusion of which the festival was brought to an end with a war dance, peace dance and the smoking of the pipe of peace.

The sachems, meanwhile, had been in council, reviewing the events of the past year, and shaping policies for the new. They settled both tribal and inter-tribal questions, thus directing the destinies not only of their own people among themselves, but also as one unit of the great League of the Iroquois, or Six Nations, and in their relations to other tribes.

The religious rites of these early Indians, it is recalled, were intended to fill the mind with serious impressions; to develop among the people the spirit of peace, brotherly kindness, charity, hospitality, integrity, truth and friendship; to show toward the Great Spirit reverence, thankfulness and faith.

NOTICE TO CHICK RAISERS

Beware of Mouldy Litter

Straw, Hay, Clover, Chaff, etc., this season were in many cases wet when put away. Therefore, even though it may now be dry a large portion of it may be mouldy.

Mouldy litter is very dangerous for chicks. The chicks inhale the mould spores which develop very rapidly in their lungs causing the disease, Aspergillosis, sometimes called "brooder pneumonia."

This is a very serious disease which causes the death of large numbers of chicks when they are brooded on mouldy litter. Be careful of litter you use. A safe, sanitary litter that is satisfactory in every way is O. K. Poultry Litter which is made of imported peat.

New York to Get Corn Borer Funds

Four Other States Included to Get Federal Aid to Combat Pest—State Legislation Pending.

The recent federal appropriation of $10,000,000 for a campaign to control the European corn borer will be used in New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan and Indiana. This includes a total corn acreage of about two and one-half million acres on about 400,000 farms, according to a recent bulletin from the United States Department of Agriculture.

New York's share of the appropriation will be available as soon as state legislation is passed to give the State Department of Agriculture necessary powers.

According to provisional regulations adopted at a recent conference of federal and state delegates, stubble, stalks, corn cobs and remnants must be burned or destroyed unless they are sliced or shredded. The corn fields must either be plowed to such a depth that no stalks or pieces of corn plant remain on the surface, or the fields must be cleared by pulverizing all corn remnants.

A federal bulletin states it is expected that farmers voluntarily cooperating in the clean-up will take the necessary measures by May 1. Following May 1, all infested farms will be re-inspected, and if the farmers meet all requirements they will be reimbursed not to exceed $2 an acre for field corn and not to exceed $1 an acre for sweet corn on which they had to undertake operations other than those ordinarily necessary.

According to the program now arranged, federal employees will show farmers how to operate machinery most effectively to control the corn borer, and will hold meetings with farmers in the infested areas.

Leather chairs, which ordinarily are difficult to clean properly, can be treated with a simple preparation made from eggs. Simply beat the whites of three eggs in a dish, and rub the paste into the leather with a flannel cloth. The chair will soon shine like new. If the leather is black, a little lamp black should be added to the eggs, says Science and Invention Magazine.

DOMESTIC YARN.

Aunt Ada's Axioms: The world needs more gratitude and less grouch.

It's easy to broil meat over an oil or gas stove with a broiler that catches the juices from the meat.

Complexions that are water-proof are applied from the inside with good food and health habits.

Some people who pride themselves on their great heart are merely excusing themselves from the lack of backbone.—Motor Chat.

Give large toys to very small children. Their large muscles develop first and they can manage the large play things better than smaller ones.

It is said that present fashions offer for all women wider choice of comfortable, convenient, and attractive clothes than ever before.

Household accounts are as essential to economical spending, and careful saving as are accounts for the farm or any other business. A household account book and a household inventory book have just been prepared by the state college at Ithaca, N. Y., and are available for general distribution in New York. Copies of one or both of them may be had by addressing the office of publication.

DAMSON PLUMS

Deserve Greater Consideration by Fruit Growers, Says Specialist.

Damsons possess many qualities which should commend them to fruit growers, particularly for home consumption and for local markets, declares Dr. U. P. Hedrick, horticulturist at the Experiment Station at Geneva, who believes that this fruit is not receiving the attention in this country that it deserves. Abroad, the damson is in great demand for canning, preserving, tarts, etc., and is much better known, says Dr. Hedrick.

All European plums are divided into two groups, the Domesticas, to which belong the large-fruited varieties, and the Damsons. The recorded history of the Damsons goes back 600 years B. C. to the city of Damascus where the Damson or Damask plum is believed to have originated.

Damsons surpass all European plums in productiveness, vigor of tree, and hardiness, says Dr. Hedrick. The fruits are smaller and more astringent than those of the common cultivated plums, and for this reason the damsons have never been so popular as the Domesticas. For culinary purposes, however, they are unsurpassed.

Shropshire is the best known Damson in this country. French is also a common variety and has larger and more productive trees than Shropshire. The fruit of the French is also larger, handsomer, and may be eaten out of hand when fully ripe.

AGRICULTURE.

Uncle Ab says we may conserve anything we wish except good nature.

In buying chicks, get them from a breeder whose stock has done well for your neighbors.

For brooding chicks, nothing is more clean, gives more uniform heat or is easier to control and operate than electric heaters.

Plan now for liming your land on which you expect to plant clover, alfalfa, barley, sweet clover, Canada field peas, or vernal peas or beans.

Ninety-five per cent of the statements about probable future trends in agriculture published in the 1926 and 1927 outlook reports of the bureau of agricultural economics at Washington was borne out by later developments.

Of the 90 million trees in the state nurseries on January 1, 1927, 42 million are ready to plant this spring. White pine, red pine, Scotch pine, Norway spruce, white spruce, black locust and European larch are the chief species represented.

Do you get the bulletins which the state college of agriculture publishes? They concern farm and home and combinations of both. Ask for a list, and, if you wish, ask to have your name included with those who get the list regularly. Address the office of publication, college of agriculture at Ithaca, N. Y.

SAMSONVILLE.

Samsonville, March 3.—Our pastor, the Rev. Orson Rice, has appointed a business meeting to be held on Friday, March 11, at 7:30, in the church and requests all the officers and friends interested in the working of the church to be present, as this will be the last business meeting before conference.

Sunday school and church service were quite well attended on Sunday. Albert Myers and Marion Oakley of New Hamburg visited their parents, returning to their work on Sunday night.

Mrs. William Chambers and children of Union Grove, Delaware county, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Harringer.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Polinski are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a baby boy.

French is believed to be a cross between Shropshire and some Domestic variety.

Another excellent Damson is Mirabelle. There are several Mirabellies in Europe, but because of their small size they have never found much favor in America. The Experiment Station is introducing an "American Mirabelle" which is larger than the common Mirabelle with round yellow fruit having a sweet, pleasing flavor. The trees of the new variety are small but extremely vigorous and hardy.

Boxers to Appear On Duke's Card

The Duke Sporting and Athletic Club will again hold a smoker and entertainment in the near future and the Duke is now negotiating terms with some fast exponents of the fist to appear in the ring at his show. He will also have some vaudeville acts that he promises will be of high quality and among the entertainers he lists Mickey Costello of radio fame. Costello has broadcasted many times from station WQJ, Chicago, and is noted for the wonderful melody he produces from a guitar. Joe Colletti, who has been appearing in the ring at smokers in this city throughout the winter, but has not boxed for some time in this vicinity, will put on a sextet of rounds with Perry London, the Greek who showed up so well against Kid Burlo of Colletti's stable several weeks ago in the White Eagle Hall. Colletti is known as a fast man with a wicked punch and at one time was on the fair road to stardom among the "big timers." London is known only as far as his one encounter in this city which he fought with Durio but the fans who saw the fracas sure absorbed a good opinion of the little fellow. Many ringworms claim that it will be one of the most interesting bouts of the card that the Duke has so far announced. Kid Buck, who has been mixing it up with Roy Van Buren to a great extent of late and who in the last encounter with the Kingston flash put up a wonderful showing will step four times with Johnny Nevels another man who has been knocking them over of late. "Coke" Costello, the man who is climbing the ladder of pugilism with a marked rapidity, will appear against Durio of Poughkeepsie. Both boys are about the same in weight and possess the "dynamite." Costello has the advantage over most of his opponents in one phase of the game for he can land with either mitt and produce the same amount of effect. Durio is a strong boy and will probably give "Coke" one of the best encounters he has yet been seen in. The main affair has not yet been completed as far as getting two men to step the final six rounds. One boxer, Teddy Martirano, a welter-weight, will be one of the men and his opponent will be chosen in the near future. ### Superstition in Naming Racers

Louisville, Ky., March 9 (AP).— "What's in a name? That which we call a rose by any other name would smell as sweet—" may be all right in some cases, but when it comes to naming horses turfmen disagree. Shakespeare and hold "a good name is better than precious ointment." Call a spade a spade, if you will, they say, but leave the naming of horses to those who know what they are doing. It may be a peculiar superstition of the track, but the fact remains. Some fifteen years ago, one owner, J. C. Cahn, had the good luck to get hold of a horse that developed into a winner for a small stable. The horse was called Bitter Sir. In the years following, Cahn tried similar names to obtain similar results and consequently there was a parade of horses with names beginning with "Bitter." Some were good and some were better. But the name won races. Probably one of the most unfortunate names to be used on the tracks is that of "Lady," turfmen say. "Lady" horses just seem naturally unlucky. An unusually good name in "Pride of Lismore" is the progenitor of many of the present "Prides." He earned his keep and more on every track that felt his hoofbeats. "Ocean" is another good name. "Duke" is not. Beginning with "Lucky" Baldwin's "Duke of Norfolk," classed by many as the worst of all the "Emperors of Norfolk" blood, down through turf history the "Duke" horses seldom have been winners. The World War produced a drove of "War" horses, but "Man o' War" is the only one to outgame what is regarded as a hindoo name to the extent of becoming recognized in the truly great class. True, many of the "war" brood show promise, track followers say, and their records are being watched with added interest by the superstitious. YOUNG JUDEANS BEAT SCHOLASTIC QUINTEZ. Tuesday night at the Jewish Community Center the Scholastics were defeated by the Young Judeans by the score of 29-20. The game was fast all the way through with the Judeans always in the lead and out of danger most of the time. Captain Perlman was again in his usual form and caged 6 fields and 2 free shots. Halloran did most of the scoring for the Scholastics with 8 points. A large crowd witnessed the game as usual. Thursday night the Young Judeans will take on the Rondout All Stars, a team composed of several church league players. This game should prove to be a fast one. The score: Young Judeans. FG. FP. TP. ### BOHOTA TRAINING FOR LACOSTE'S TITLE

New York, March 9.—France does not intend to loosen her hold on American tennis titles without a struggle. Hence Jean Borotra, the "Bouncing Basque," has entered the national indoor championships, starting March 12, for the third consecutive year. Borotra, one of the most colorful personalities in tennis, won the Yankee indoor crown in 1925 from a mediocre field. He was runner-up last year to his countryman, Rene Lacoste, after the two Freshmen had disposed of Vincent Richards and "Big Bill" Tilden. Lacoste will not defend his title but Borotra figures as a tournament favorite unless Tilden decides to take another fling at indoor honors. Borotra, a pump salesman, combines his spring tennis trip with business. HADLEY OF SENATORS FOUND BY VOLUNTEERS Tampa, Fla., March 9.—Irving Hadley, young Washington pitcher, should be "all wool and a yard wide." He was recommended to President Clark Griffith by a volunteer scout who is a manufacturer of wicker goods. Hadley is as promising as any of the pitching talent discovered by properly accredited scouts with no manufacturing sideline. who boxed in an admirable fashion against Joe Vendick at the White Eagle some weeks ago. Fiddie Scherer will do the announcing in which capacity he pleases the fans whenever he steps into the square circle. It is the Dutch purpose to have Dominic Petrone come to Kingston for the smoker and govern the hosts but assurance of his appearance is not yet secured. The exact date and hall where the smoker will be held will be announced in the near future.

All-Stars After The Fair Grounds

The Kingston All-Stars Baseball Club has secured George Cragan of Wilbur to act as field manager for the coming season. Carl Glaser was also selected as captain for the coming year. The position of field manager is something that the local club has needed since the middle of last season. During the 1926 season the All-Stars Club lost eleven games by one run margin. It is expected that with good coaching the club will overcome this difficulty. Cragan has been interested in baseball all his life. When the Wilbur Feds had their famous team about ten years ago he managed them. He is a hard worker and will be sure to keep the club in good working order. "Dutch" Glaser who will captain the locals this summer, has held down third base for the All-Stars for the past three seasons. Dutch has been one of the local's mainstays always cool and steady and on the job at all times. He and Cragan should round the team in good shape. Manager McCordie has been taking up matters with the Fair Grounds Association to take over the grounds. Plans are about set to close the deal. He expects to play two games on the local grounds and two out of town a week. The road games will be representing a city which will have no club of its own the coming year. The All-Stars Club this year will be composed of several out of town men, the rest from here. It will also be a higher calibre of baseball than in the past.

In the Southern Training Camps

New York, March 9 (AP).—Wilbert Robinson, portly manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers, has several problems on his hands at Clearwater, Fla., but outfielders are not among them. Robbie appears to have gathered a most promising collection of youths for the effort to lift the Robins out of the National ruck this season. And chief among them are two new outfielders, Hendricks and Nietzke, who are belting the ball in stunning fashion while teaming nicely on defense with "Irish" Meusel, former Giant. Babe Ruth is taking all the spotlight at the Yankee camp in St. Petersburg where he daily knocks a dozen or two balls from sight and works harder than any other man in camp. A rookie, Elias Funk, of Oklahoma City, is also punching them far. At Sarasota where the Giants train, one youngster has gathered himself a regular job for the summer. Twice in two days "Bero" Lebourreau has been called to the plate to start off exhibition games and twice he opened the fracas with a home run. COLLEGIATES DOWNED THE KINGSTON ALL STARS The Collegiates trimmed the Kingston All Stars on the Salvation Army court Tuesday night in a fast game to the tune of 39 to 35. The winning aggregation were most successful in the second frame and the efforts of Gilday, Fitzgerald and Goldfarb put the Collegiates on the straight road to success. In the first half the All Stars played fine basketball and were ahead 19 to 13 at the termination of the frame but they could not stand the exerted efforts put forth by the opposing team and dropped back very noticeably at the opening of the second half. ### ALTROCK'S FOOLING MAKES WORK LIGHTER

Tampa, Fla., March 9.—Nick Altrock, the funniest man in baseball is the hardest working athlete in the camp of the Washington Senators. The comedian is the first out and last in at practice and, although the youngsters do not know it, there is method in his apparent madness. As long as he will "do his stuff" it is fun and not work to practice, and Nick keeps them toiling overtime as they smile. Altrock was a great southpaw pitcher for the Chicago White Sox when he was younger, but there were not so many dollars in baseball then as now, so today he gets several times as much money for being funny as he did for pitching. The players will miss a couple of luncheon courses to hear him yell "thirty love" as one boots two ground balls in a row, or a "mashie niblick shot" when he pops one up instead of hitting it on the ground.

ARY AND CARY, TWINS BASKETBALL STARS

Oxford, Miss., March 3.—Ary and Cary Phillips, twin brothers, are alike in being athletic stars, but unlike each other physically. Both are members of the University of Mississippi's basketball team. Ary, guard, is a decided blonde. Cary, forward, is an equally decided brunette. Their work on the team is one of the reasons Mississippi stands among the leaders in the Southern Conference this season.

Dodgers Infield Presents Problem

Manager Robinson Admits He Has No Idea Who Will Play Second and Third Base—Enough Material for Other Departments. Clearwater, Fla., March 9 (AP).—Although Manager Wilbert Robinson has not lost weight worrying about the Brooklyn infield it is in a scrambled condition as the training period moves into its stride. The rotund manager of the Dodgers admits that he has "no idea" who will play second and third. He has decided on first base and short stop, leaving the other two places as his unfinished business. On other departments the team has practically made itself up. With Jacques Fournier gone, Floyd Herman has succeeded to first base and the clean-up hitting position. Johnny Butler, a great player if he keeps his health, will win shortstop without a struggle. The race is declared open for the remainder of the infield selections. The former southern leaguers, Jimmy Partridge, from Nashville and Bobby Barrett, from Memphis, are bidding for second and third respectively, but are encountering opposition from three members of last year's team, Jerry Standart, Wilson Lewis, and Bill Marriott. If the contest should be decided by hitting alone Standart would win. He is a better batsman than fielder. Billy Riehl, once a Newberry, S. C. college star, is equally at home in the infield or the outfield but with the outfield fairly well populated by more experienced players he probably will be content to concentrate on infield endeavor. Indications early in the game are that the battle royal may be continued in the actual playing season before regular second and third sackers are assigned. The outfield presents a much less difficult problem. Captain Max Carey will play center and Arnold Stutz, fresh from a great season on the Pacific coast, and with major league experience in his equipment, has been conceded left field. Harvey Hendrick, who has tried twice before, seems destined to stick this time. Although he played first base for Providence and New Orleans, he has been sent to the outfield in the Brooklyn camp and his hitting and speed have made a quick impression. Gus Felix will hold on but he is contemplating a watchful eye on the former Vanderbilt star. Mervin Jacobson, of last year's team, seems to have been crowded out by the addition of Stutz and Hendrick. Oscar Roettger, a pitcher who can hit, also is playing the outfield. An experienced catcher will be sent to other fields as a result of the addition of Butch Henline to the receiving staff. Henline, whose acquisition cost the Robins Burleigh Grimes in a round-about trade, will be the first string performer. Three of last year's catchers, Deberry, O'Neil and Hargreaves, make up a surplus. Jim Silver, former Notre Dame receiver, picked a tough spot to display his wares. The success of the pitching staff will depend in a large measure on the ability of Bill Doak to come back after a period of retirement an improvement in the form displayed by last year's staff, brought over intact, with the exception of Grimes. Doak does not know how good his spitball will be. Vance, Petty, McWeeney, Barnes, McGraw and Ehrhardt will start another season. They will be reinforced by three of the half dozen recruits.

JUDEANS WIN IN CLASH WITH COLLEGIANS

The Scholastics and the Young Judeans clashed on the Jewish Community Center court Tuesday night with the result that the men who played on their home court turned out to be victorious. The game was very fast and exciting and the final score tallied 29 to 20. The Judeans were never in the rear with their point collection and although the opposing quintet played hard it could not overcome the determined aggression from the Community Center. Perlman was the outstanding scorer of the game and added 14 markers to the Judeans' total while Halloran of the Collegiates corralled eight ironmen for his five. The score: Scholastics. FG. FP. TP. Cullum, f. 1 1 3 Sobsey, lf. 0 0 0 MacDonald, c. 2 0 4 Halloran, g. 1 6 8 Bittner, g. 2 1 4 Fuschle, g. 0 0 0 Total 6 8 20 Young Judeans. FG. FP. TP. ### BOXING BOUTS AT ARMORY ON MARCH 28

The armory has been secured by the American Legion Post 150 for the smoker to be held March 28, the boxing committee announced at a meeting last night. The smoker will be held under the auspices of the First Battalion of the 156th Field Artillery. Eight hundred reserved and 1,400 unreserved seats will be available. The fighting program has not been completed and will be made public later. John Erue's orchestra will furnish the music.

Condition of John Mostil Improved

Shreveport, La., March 9 (AP).—The condition of Johnny Mostil, outfielder of the Chicago White Sox, who attempted to take his life here Tuesday night in the bath room of a hotel where the Sox are quartered, was improved this morning. Mostil was said to have had a fairly good night and was conscious. Mostil slashed himself four times, using a knife and a razor blade. Mostil was found lying in a pool of blood in a room of a friend at the hotel where the White Sox stop. His throat, wrists and ankles were wound over and there was a deep stab wound over his heart. Doctors said last night that the wound over his heart would probably prove fatal. Pat Prunty, intimate friend of the ball player, said he left Mostil in the room late in the afternoon. When he returned an hour later, the door was locked and he used his key to enter. He found Mostil lying unconscious on the floor of the bath room. Friends could assign no reason for the act except a possible mental aberration brought on by worry over his health. He was reported to have appeared despondent during the day after a visit to a dentist's office where he had an X-ray picture of his teeth made. Late last night Mostil was reported resting easily and called sufficiently to recognize friends at his bedside. The best player is 30 years old and unmarried. Friends here said last night he was to be married when he returned to Chicago. Mostil came here Monday to join the White Sox in training. Rann prevented practice, however, and he had not yet put on a uniform. Mostil came into major league baseball as the winner of a "popularity contest" conducted during the first year of the World War by the Chicago Tribune, to fill the ranks of baseball depleted by war enlistments.

Sudden Death Near Phoenixia

George W. Wright, apparently about 70 years old, who for the past four years has made his home with Charles Herdman, two and one-half miles north of Phoenixia, died suddenly Tuesday morning about 11:30 o'clock. He was seized with apoplexy while walking along the road between Phoenixia and Allaben.

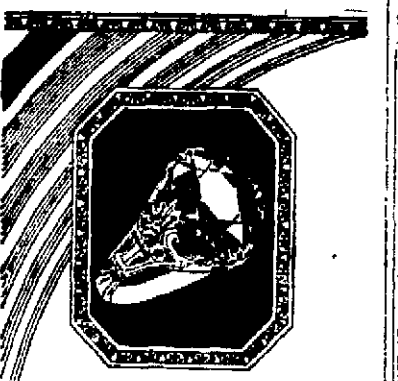

Wright, who has a brother in Poughkeepsie whom the authorities are trying to locate, was observed walking along the road by Charles Blakeslee. He suddenly fell and when Mr. Blakeslee overtook him he picked him up and placing him in the car started for the Herdman home. Wright died in the car on the way back home.

Coroner W. N. Conner of this city was notified and went to the scene. He issued a certificate of death and turned the body over to H. Lee Brethaupt of Phoenixia. Coroner Conner is attempting to locate the missing brother who resides in or near Poughkeepsie.

NEW BAPTIST CHURCH WANTS MORE ROOM

The Immanuel Baptist Church, colored, 51 Hasbrouck avenue, the Rev. C. H. King, pastor, must have more room to accommodate the people that are coming to hear the Gospel preached. The present place has been crowded during the winter months, and what will it be in the summer? The male members have pledged themselves to pay in $50 each and the females pledged themselves to pay in $25 each on or before September 1, towards a new church edifice. The total pledges so far amount to $1,500 and there are more than sixty members yet to pledge. Some of the pledgers are ready to pay at any time.

We want a Baptist Church in Kingston, we need it and we must have it. And as we are doing all we can toward it, we appeal to the general public to aid us in weathering the storm. The Bible says, "The prayers of the righteous prevaileth much," and we feel that a dollar from each citizen would build a church.

This church has been a help to the city so far and will be more help if all of the colored people can have the Gospel preached to them. Churches make better cities and churches make better men and women.

REV. C. H. KING, 89 Newkirk avenue.

Accuse Priestess Of Murder Plot

Los Angeles, March 9 (P).—Mrs. Margaret W. Rowan, religious leader and prophetess of Doomsday, occupied a cot in the prison ward of the county hospital today after her dramatic surrender here after nine days to answer a charge of plotting to kill a rival leader.

Using crutches and escorted by her son, Mrs. Rowan hobbled into police headquarters yesterday. With two of her followers she is accused of having plotted to kill Dr. Burt E. Fuller, head of a church faction opposed to her doctrines.

Fuller, who reported he was drugged and beaten when lured to a tourist camp near here, charged that the attack resulted from his threats to expose the activities of Mrs. Rowan and her followers.

Mrs. Rowan was further implicated when Dr. J. F. Baker and Miss Mary A. Wade, a nurse, admitted the attack and accused the priestess of being the instigator. They said Mrs. Rowan had brought them to the camp in her automobile but fled the scene when their plans miscarried.

In surrendering, Mrs. Rowan told detectives that instead of having had a hand in the affair, she too, was a victim of the attack. She had been called to the camp by telephone. When she stepped into a cabin she was choked and beaten.
